The image shows two screenshots of the ProQuest website. The top screenshot is the homepage, featuring a blue header with the ProQuest logo and navigation links. A search bar is visible. Below the header, there's a banner with the text "Expand your Reach." and "ProQuest Launches Ebook Central". A "Start My Research" button is present. Below the banner, there are four small images representing different research scenarios. The bottom screenshot shows the "Connect" page, where the "Researcher" link is highlighted in the "Log-In" section. Below this, there are four cards for different access types: "ProQuest Platform Access", "Chadwyck-Healey Access", "ProQuest Dialog Access", and "Congressional Access".

Discover, Grow and Thrive – Anywhere, Anytime

Lessons take place in the classroom, but learning happens all the time. That's where ProQuest plays a role with providing access to suite of journals, databases, and ebook resources.

Use your ProQuest credentials or speak to your librarian to open up our online resources. Note that your institution needs to subscribe to a resource in order to gain access.
